

Raymond E. Creager, a witness of lawful age, produced on behalf of the Plaintiffs, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

Q. Will you state your full name, age and address, please.

A. Raymond E. Creager, Thurmont, Md.; 50 years old.

Q. What is your connection with the firm trading as
M. L. Creager & Son?

A. I am an owner of it.

Q. Do you remember the occasion of the death of Celia A. Toms?

A. Yes. On September 17, 1942.

Q. Were you engaged as the funeral director in connection with the burial of Mrs. Toms?

A. Yes.

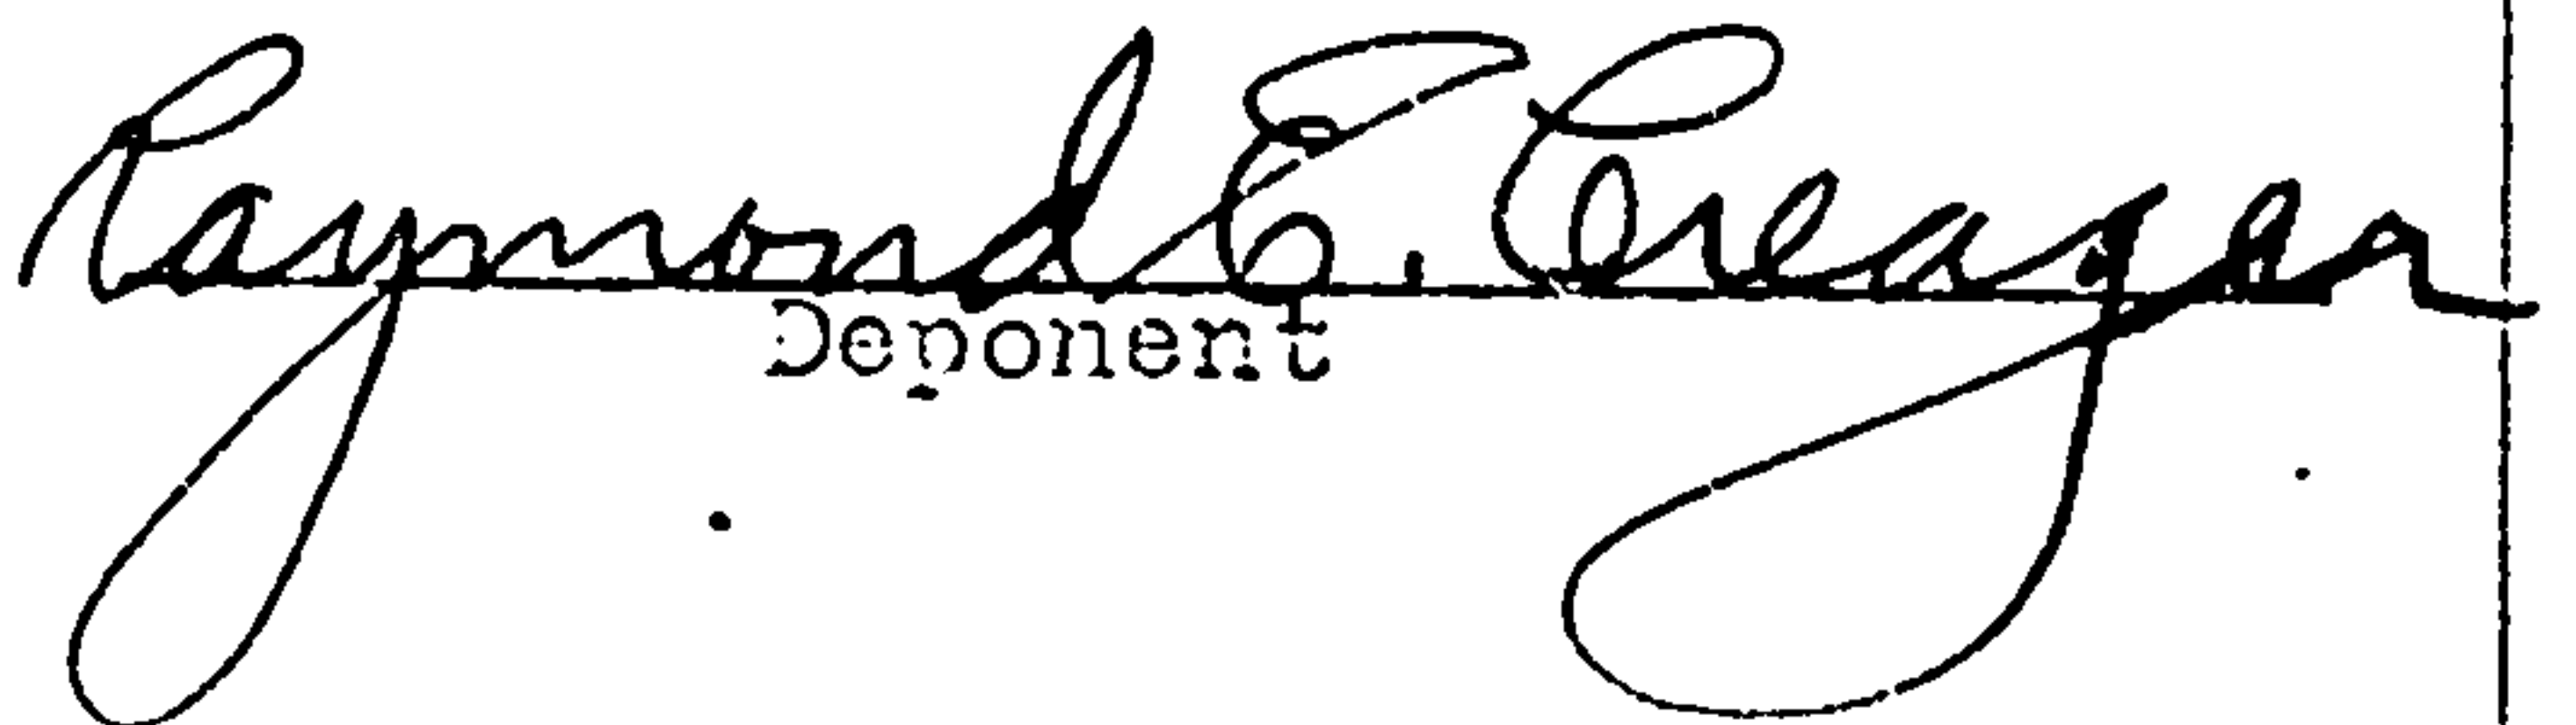

Q. Will you describe just what services were rendered?

A. Solid oak casket and all services that we render, $145.00, concrete vault, $60.00, and dress, $12.50; the total account was $217.50.

Q. I show you an account rendered by M. L. Creager & Son to the Estate of Celia A. Toms, marked and filed with the proceedings as Exhibit "No. 1", showing a balance due of $217.50. Will you state whether or not the account is correct as set forth?

A. Yes, sir, that is correct. (Account filed as evidence.)

To the General Interrogatory: Nothing further.
